

The main graphic is a large black rectangle containing a gold fleur-de-lis on the left side. To the right of the fleur-de-lis, the words 'FURIE'S' and 'TREASURES' are written in a white, elegant serif font. The 'F' in 'FURIE'S' is particularly large and ornate, overlapping the fleur-de-lis.

Turie's Treasures is one of our Proud Sponsors this season. They offer unique vintage antiques and collectible items. "We carry items from here in the Pacific Northwest to our home state Louisiana and everywhere in between!" At Turie's Treasures, they aim to please, "so if we don't have it and you want it, we'd be glad to find it for you."

Here is what I learned about Turies Treasures located in Port Angeles at 315 East 1st Street.

The name Turie, in our family, originated with my mother, Marjorie Sandell Price. As a child my parents had Attic Antiques in Alexandria Louisiana and it was fascinating to see the beauty and history of the items they bought and sold through the years.

I lost my mother in 2003 and the name Turie grew even more special to me as a way to honor my beautiful Mama. I inherited many, many beautiful antiques and other items from my parents and I always thought of having my own shop one day.

In 2011, my belated son Jerrod began selling some items for me on eBay and he suggested using the name Turie's Treasures as my online sales name and then in 2015 I was opening my new shop under that name!

Charlotte is the owner and sole proprietor of Turie's Treasures. She hails from Southern Louisiana and lives in Sequim to be close to her oldest son, his wife and their 2 small children. Charlotte grew up around her parents antique store during the 60's and 70's and has a love for things from our past. She places great pride in her shop and looks to add a personal touch to every item.

The mural below she commissioned for the east side of the building. It was done by Derek Gundy, son of Greg and Marilyn Gundy of Sea Basket Farm. It is an incredible piece.

Pay a visit to Turie's Treasures, have a look around, recommend it to friends and be sure to say "Thank You for being a sponsor of the Sequim Farmers Market!"
